

Le donne, un ottimo investimento

Roberto Marsicano

Roma, 24 settembre 2015

Alla ricerca della crescita

Il sogno di Amaratech

“Il mio nome significa ‘bella’. Dalle 3 del mattino alle 15 del pomeriggio, raccolgo rami di eucalipto. Ne ricavo quanto basta per due giorni di cibo. ”

“Io, invece, vorrei solo andare a scuola”

WHY

'Brilliant in its simplicity and power
... wonderfully readable'
Steven Levitt,
author of Freakonomics

NATIONS

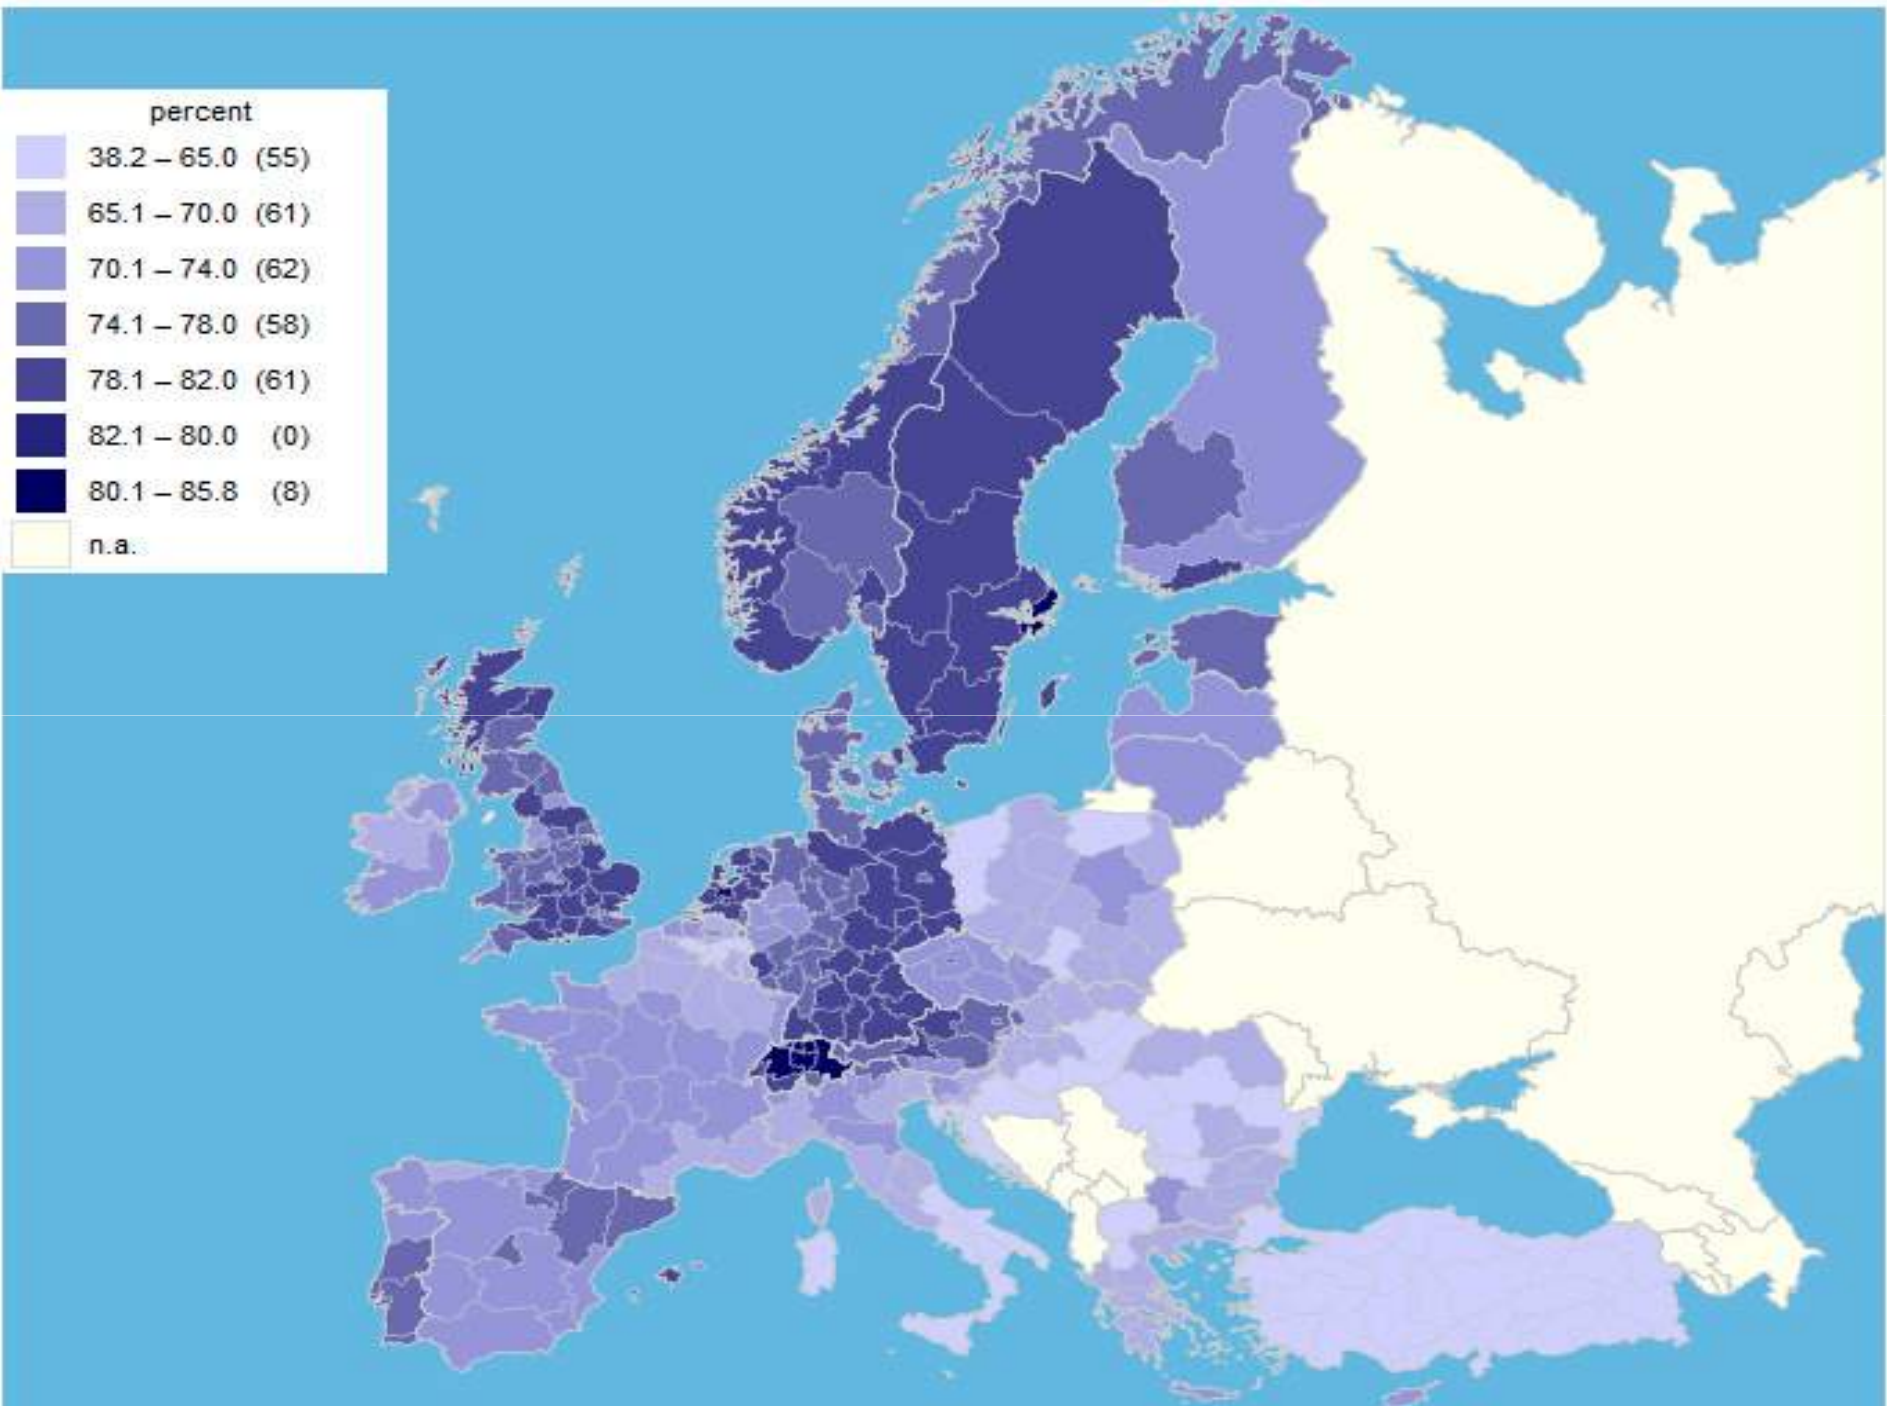

FAIL

THE ORIGINS OF POWER, PROSPERITY AND POVERTY

DARON ACEMOGLU
& JAMES A. ROBINSON

Investire in Welfare

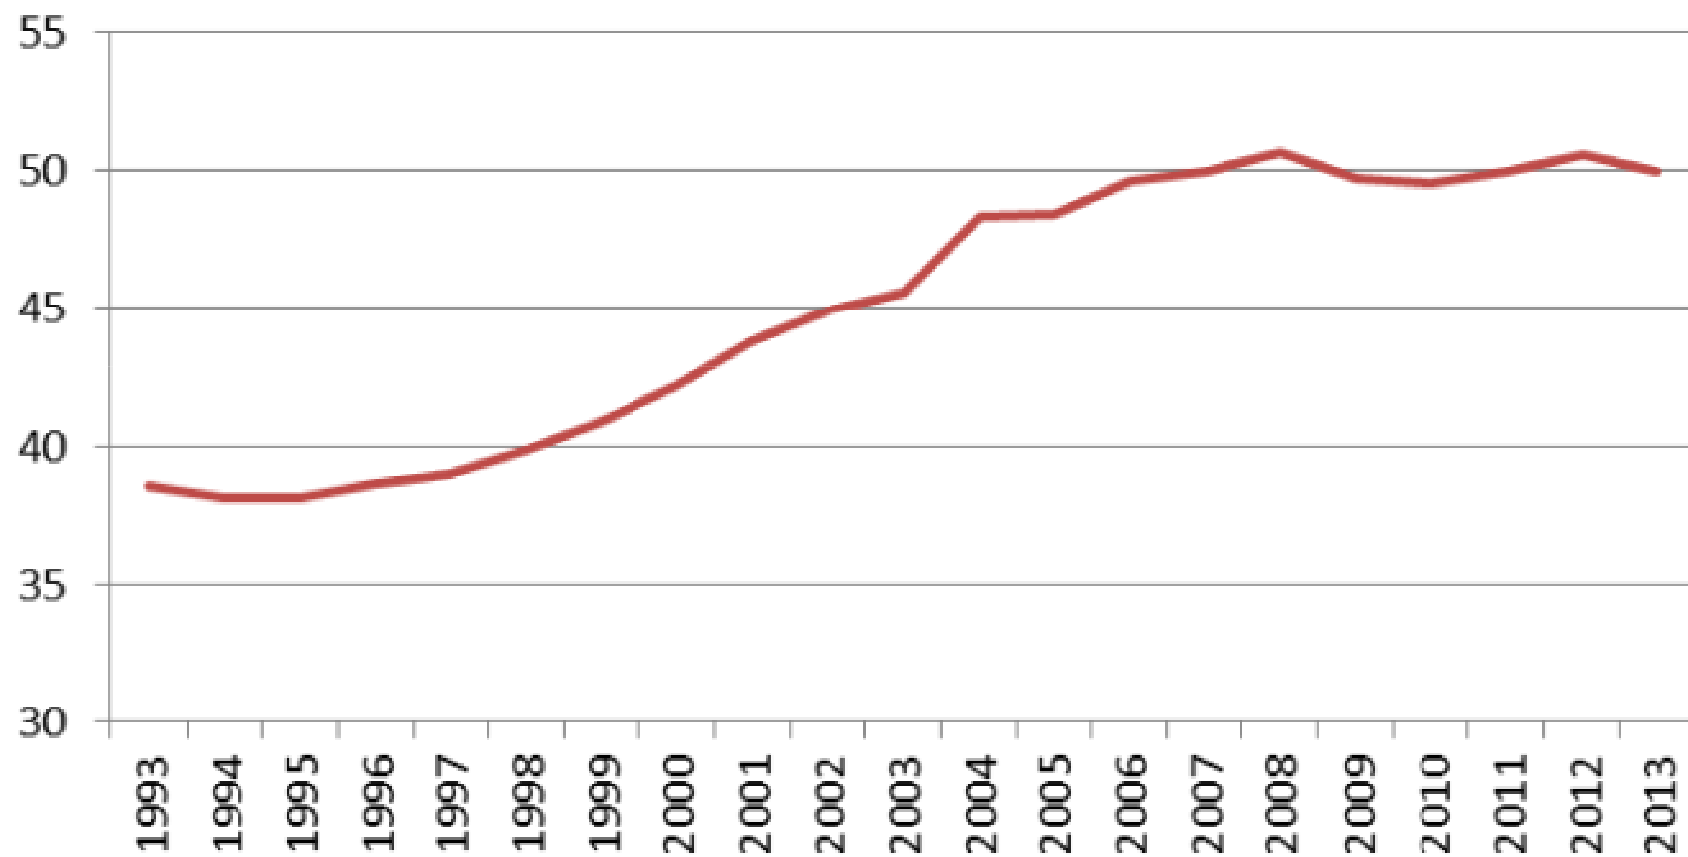

Female employment rate in the EU, by type of employment, 2013 (population aged 20 to 64 - in %)

Employment rate Female Italy

Quota di Neet* (15-29 anni)

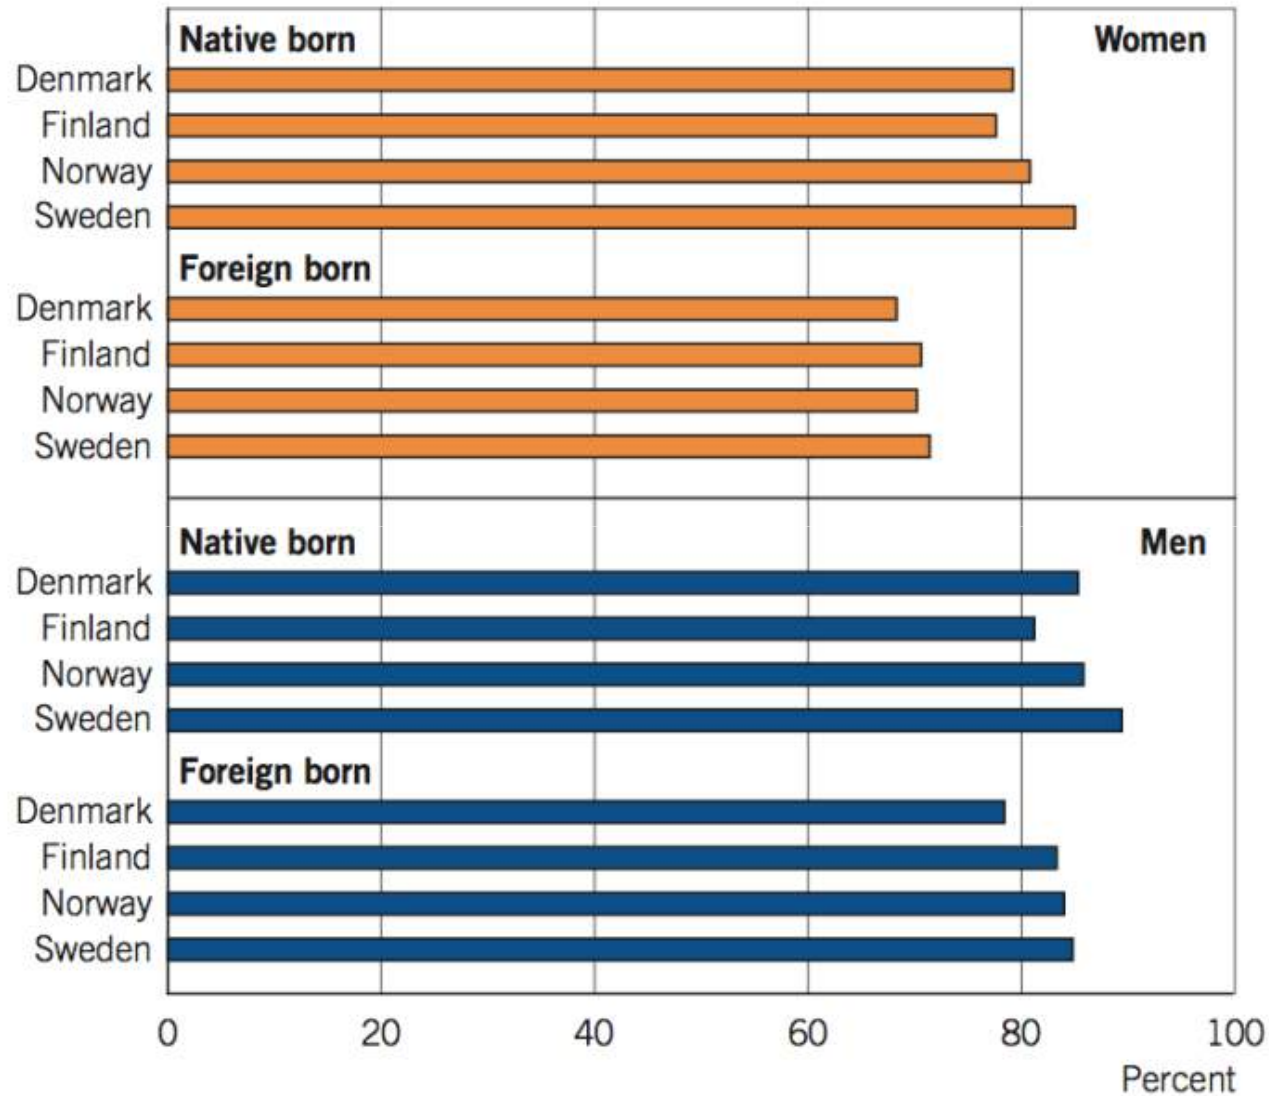

■ 2013 ◆ 2008

*Persone not in education, employment or training in % della popolazione corrispondente.

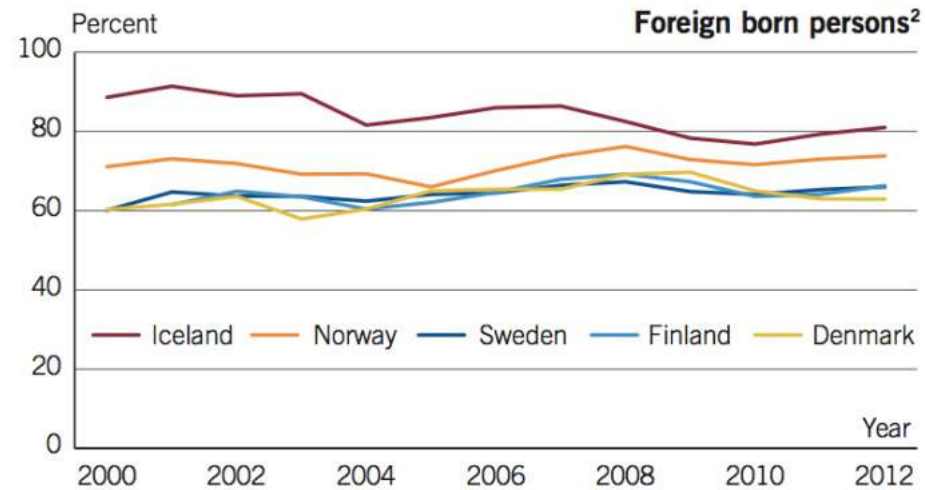

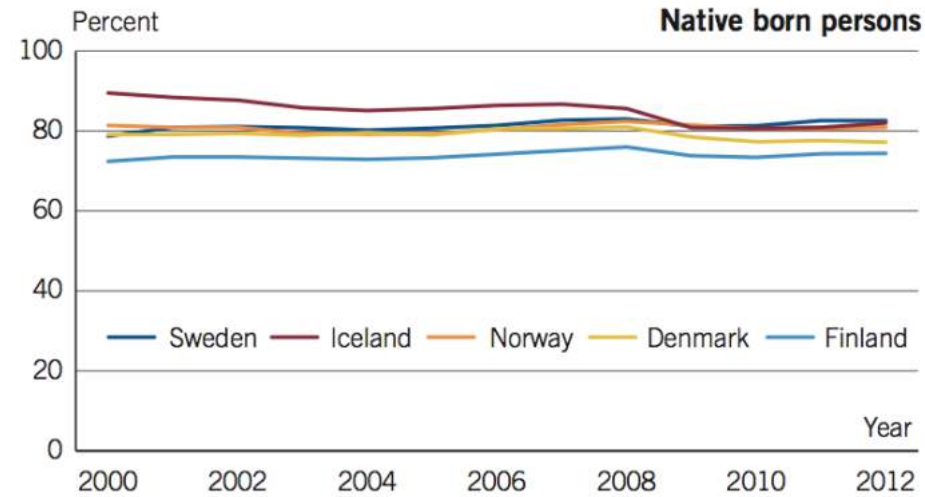

Elaborazioni REF Ricerche su dati Eurostat e Istat

27. Share of population in the labour force, aged 20–64, 2012.

Source: The labour force survey in the respective country

29. Percentage of population that is employed, aged 20–64, 2000–2012.¹

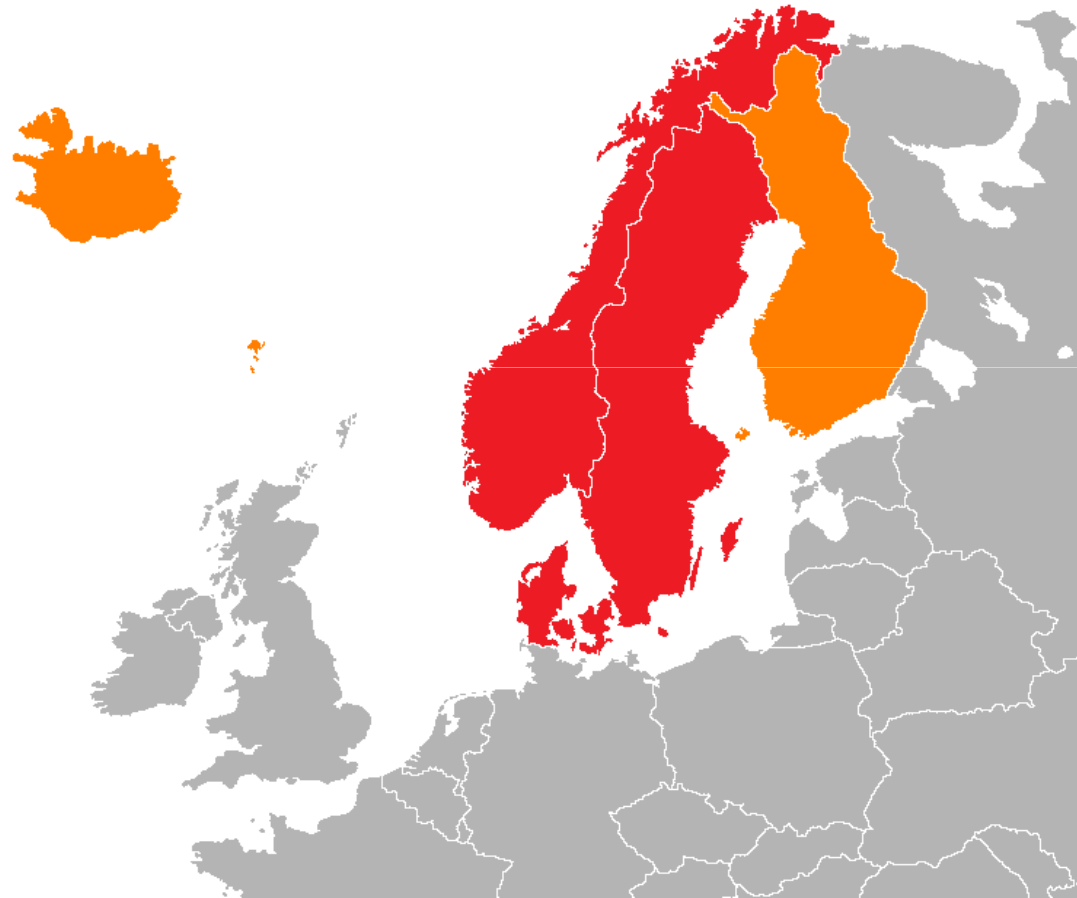

Source: Eurostat

¹ Break in the time series in the Swedish Labour Force Survey in 2005.

² Data for foreign born persons in Finland in 2000 are not reported due to lack of quality.

Global Gender Gap Index top 10

- Iceland
- Finland
- Norway
- Sweden
- Denmark
- Nicaragua
- Rwanda
- Ireland
- Philippines
- Belgium
-
- 69ma Italia

Svezia, welfare e bambini

Congedo Parentale

- 480 giorni per nascita o adozione
- 390 giorni a 105 euro
- 60 giorni obbligatori per genitore

Asili nido

- Massimo 130 euro/mese
- Orario 6:15 – 18:00

Germania, università gratis

Solo una tassa semestrale di 250 euro

- include abbonamento ai trasporti pubblici

Perché?

- “le tasse universitarie impediscono di studiare ai giovani provenienti da famiglie a basso reddito e disgregano la società”.

Chi?

- Tutti. Anche gli stranieri.

Roberto Marsicano

roberto@marsicano.com

@cannedcat

340 230 79 30